Other Information

Please note that there is an alternative bus purchase worksheet. This is available so that entities who are unable to obtain brake horse power ratings from manufacturers can calculate emissions savings for their proposed bus replacements.

A diesel retrofit worksheet for verified technologies has been provided. If you are proposing a diesel retrofit project for a non-verified technology, you are responsible for creating an acceptable emissions protocol to demonstrate the benefits of the project. You should consult the manufacturer of your product for assistance in evaluating their products for your fleets. Also, please be sure to secure approval from your fleet management department before requesting CMAQ funds. Subjective or qualitative evaluations can be submitted, but the decision of the Federal Highway Administration as to whether or not the argument is acceptable to satisfy the eligibility requirements will be final.
